

Mrs. Hall (She/Her)

Phonetic Pronunciation: Missus Haal

Music: Everything from Classical to Punk

Movies: The Princess Bride; Anything that is not close to reality

Books: I read 1 a week so yeah, I like them.

My Walkout Song

I chose "Punk Rock Girl" by The Dead Milkmen as my walkout song because no matter how old I get this is how I think of myself. Not really rebellious but not willing to be like everybody else. I think everyone should be uniquely who they are.

Instruction Slide

You will create a google slide that introduces yourself. It must include:

The name you want me to address you by with how to pronounce it (this may be phonetically written or a recording of how to say it linked to the slide.)

A brief statement of who you are and anything you want to share about yourself.

A photo of your face

A walk out song (you know, like at a boxing match or for the batter at a home baseball game) plus an explanation of why "that" is the song you chose.
